

Schindler Elevator Corp. is owned by the Swiss-based Schindler Group, employs approximately 200 North Carolinians and is located in Sampson County. Schindler is the world's second largest elevator company and the world's leading escalator supplier. The Schindler-Clinton family participates in school and community activities such as Smart Start, Relay for Life, United Way, the expansion of Sampson Community College, parent-teacher organizations, as well as various civic groups.

EMJ America, a wholly owned subsidiary of Canadian-based EMJ Data Systems, is located in Pittsboro with 20 employees. EMJ America distributes small form factor computers and peripherals to the embedded and industrial marketplace. EMJ donates two percent of after tax profits to charity every year and its employees are given one hour per week to volunteer with local organizations.

###